INFLUENZA STILL RAGING IN COUNTY; MORE CASES IN CITY

Number of Influenza Cases in County Reaches Near 100 While Several New Cases Are Reported in the City.

Dr. J. S. Locke, County Health Officer, this afternoon reports that during the day 98 new cases of influenza have been reported to his office from county precincts and 22 new cases have been reported from the six wards in the city of Maysville making a total of 120 new cases for the day. There has been one death from pneumonia developing from influenza reported today.

Dr. Locke again urges upon the people of both city and county that they use every known precaution to prevent the spread of the disease. In the county grown-ups are urged to keep out of crowds and where the condition warrants it Dr. Locke and County Superintendent Turnpseed are closing the schools. In the city Dr. Locke urges that every one use their best judgment to keep away from the disease which seems to be growing more epidemic every day. If persons will exercise their best judgments, Dr. Locke points out and take care of themselves the situation can be better handled than in any other way.

HENRY C. BOTTS DIES IN LEXINGTON; BURIAL HERE

Mr. Henry C. Botts died at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington Thursday after an illness of two weeks. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sallie E. Botts, two sons and one daughter besides several brothers and sisters. The body will be brought to Maysville Saturday morning and taken direct to the Maysville cemetery for burial. Mr. Botts was a former resident of the Minerva neighborhood.

SMALLPOX QUARANTINE NOT LIFTED

Dr. J. S. Locke, County Health Officer, was at Rectorville today investigating the case of smallpox there. Dr. Locke reports the patient doing nicely and no spread of the disease. The quarantine, however, will remain on the home of the patient until the full 21 days have elapsed.

MAYSVILLE GUN EXPERTS WILL ATTEND BIG EVENT

State Champion W. H. Hall and Dr. J. A. Simpson Will Be Members of Kentucky Delegation at Big North Carolina Handicap.

One of the biggest shoots in the country this year will be the big annual mid-winter handicap at Pinehurst, N. C., next week and among the delegation going from Kentucky in an effort to bring the records back to the Bluegrass state with them will be two Maysville men. Mr. W. Houston Hall, state champion, will there shoot with other state champions from the South while Dr. J. A. Simpson, who has always been in the high figure will show some of the Southerners how Kentuckians can shoot.

The handicap is looked forward to by sportsmen as probably the biggest thing in sports in the South and experts from all over the country will be present.

Mr. Hall and Dr. Simpson will leave Maysville Saturday for Pinehurst and will remain for several days, both having been entered in several of the leading events. We feel confident that some of the honors will be brought back to Kentucky by them.

CLAUDE McNUTT PROMOTED

Friends here will be glad to know that Mr. Claude McNutt, formerly of this city, has been promoted to the office of general manager of the Fifth street store of the W. L. Douglas Shoe Company in Cincinnati. Mr. McNutt is recognized as one of the most expert retail shoe men in Cincinnati and his many Maysville friends extend hearty congratulations upon his success thus far and wish him much more in the future.

GROCCERS HAVE BIG TIME AT SOCIAL THURSDAY NIGHT

Good Fellowship Reigns at Meeting of Grocers' Association — Life of Walter Nauman Praised — Grocers Given Credit For Enforcement of Laws.

The Maysville Retail Grocers' social Thursday evening at Kalghts of Columbus hall was one of the best meetings of the kind given in Maysville recently. There were many present and every one attending enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

President Cummins, of the association, presided over the meeting and did it well. The speakers were County Judge H. P. Purnell, County Agent George Kirk, County Food Administrator W. D. Cochran and Mayor Thomas M. Russell.

Judge Purnell at the request of the grocers, delivered a eulogy on the life of the late Walter I. Nauman, who was one of the Grocers' Association's most active members. His life was unfolded by the Judge in beautiful words and every person in attendance had known Mr. Nauman and knew that everything said about him was true. Among other things Judge Purnell said, "He was an American in all of his aspiration and he looked to the destiny of his country with a philosophic composure as of many patriots who have gone on before him. As a young man he was a success both in a business world and in the spiritual but in the performance of his duty to man and to his God, there came a call from one on high whose call no one has ever failed to answer. He departed to his home and while we miss him more than words can tell us ever remember that he did his work and did it well and in recompense for that faithful performance of duty he now has a home in the celestial regions above where sorrow knows us not and where the days are not numbered but come and go in the sunshine of happiness in companionship with the Redeemer, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords."

County Agent George Kirk gave the grocers somewhat of his experiences in the grocery business at Champaign, Ill. He told them of the splendid credit rating bureau the grocers' association had there and explained partly the workings of an up-to-date co-operative delivery system. Mr. Kirk offered his services to the grocers if they desired to go into the matter of a co-operative delivery system in the future.

County Food Administrator W. D. Cochran responded to the applause of the grocers upon the announcement of his name in his happy fashion. In his talk he highly complimented the Maysville and Mason county grocers as being among our most patriotic citizens and gave to the grocers of the city and the county credit for the successful operation of all of the edicts of the Federal Food Administration which brought to Mason county the reputation of being one of the strictest observers of the Federal Food laws in the state. Mr. Cochran said that his year or more of association with the grocers although it was in war times and had some times caused him much worry and hard labor, had been pleasant. He gave the grocers the tip that the Food Administration was about through with the exception of regulating the prices on certain classes of food stuffs.

Mayor Thomas M. Russell was called on and in a few words expressed his opinion of the value of the Grocers' Association. He closed his few remarks with a plea for co-operation and the promise of a business like administration through the next three years.

The committee in charge of the affair, Messrs. Fred Cablish, James A. Wallace and Thomas K. Proctor, deserve much credit for the fine evening.

A substantial lunch was served by a committee of attractive young ladies—daughters of the grocers—which was very much enjoyed by the crowd. An orchestra composed of Carl Dodds, violin; Mrs. Carl Dodds, piano; J. H. Richardson, cornet; Prof. J. E. Young, cornet; Mrs. J. S. Young, bass, dispensed very beautiful music during the evening. This orchestra has practiced together but a few times but they made splendid music and it now appears that Maysville will have a first class orchestra for such occasions.

So pleased were the grocers with the entertainment that on motion it was decided to have another social on February 24th in honor of the birthday of Mr. Fred Cablish, one of the leaders in the organization. Colonel James A. Wallace chairman of a committee for the event and that is sure everyone of some ordinary.

MRS. CHARLES CALVERT IS VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Well Known Woman of the Mt. Gilead Neighborhood is Ill But One Week From Pneumonia When the End Came—Has Relatives Here.

Mrs. Nancy Glascock Calvert, wife of Mr. Charles S. Calvert, died at her home in the Mt. Gilead neighborhood this morning after a week's illness of double pneumonia which followed a case of influenza.

Mrs. Calvert was a splendid woman loved by all of her neighbors and all who knew her. She was lovable and kind and had many very dear friends in all parts of Mason county.

Besides her husband and one son, Robert, she is survived by five brothers and two sisters. Mr. Paul Glascock, popular rural route driver of this city is a brother and Mrs. J. R. Davis and Mrs. Arthur Glascock, of the county are both sisters.

Burial will be made in the Mt. Carmel cemetery.

JOHN P. COMER DEAD

Mr. John P. Comer, aged 27 years, died at his home near Flemingsburg Thursday of double pneumonia which developed from influenza. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Tierney, of this city, and an infant child as well as his mother, Mrs. Mary Comer and his grandfather, Mr. John Maley, who is now nearly 90 years of age. He also has many relatives in all parts of Mason county. The funeral will be held from the Flemingsburg Catholic Church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and burial will be made in the Washington cemetery.

MORE BOARDING HOUSES NEEDED

Maysville is in need of more hotels of the ordinary sort or more boarding houses. During the present rush at the tobacco market the farmers are having much difficulty in finding places to spend the night and many are compelled to sleep in the office of the warehouses or the livery barns. There are now several boarding houses in the tobacco district but there seems to be a splendid opening for more.

BIG CROWD EXPECTED AT SALE ON SATURDAY

The managers of the big Melvain, Knox & Diener store are expecting a great rush at their store Saturday all day and they have procured enough high class salesmen to care for the big rush. The big sale is going forward with much success. There are good sized crowds every day and the people recognize such values that they are spending their money very liberally.

"GRIFFITH'S" BIG FEATURE TONIGHT

The managers of the Washington Theater are offering a rare treat this evening in D. W. Griffith's latest feature, "The Great Love". D. W. Griffith is considered the greatest of movie directors. It was he who directed the greatest and most stupendous pictures yet shown on the screen. "The Great Love" should fill the theater.

PROHIBITION IS RATIFIED BY ALL STATES NECESSARY

Vote of the Legislature of Nebraska Closes Long Battle to Make Nation Dry—Amendment Effective in 1920.

Washington, January 17—Ratification yesterday of the Federal constitutional prohibition amendment made the United States the first great Power to take legislative action permanently to stop the liquor traffic.

Nebraska's vote gave the necessary affirmative three fourths majority of the states to make effective the amendment submitted by Congress in December, 1917.

It was followed by similar action in the Legislatures of Missouri and Wyoming, marking 38 states in all which have approved a "dry" America.

Affirmative action by certain of the 10 States Legislatures yet to act is predicted by prohibition advocates.

Under the terms of the amendment the manufacture, sale and importation of intoxicating liquors must cease one year after ratification, but prohibition will be a fact in every state much earlier because of the war measure forbidding the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages after June 30 until the demobilization of the military forces is completed.

Under the war-time measure exportation of liquor is permitted, but the great stocks held in bonded warehouses will have to be disposed of before the Federal amendment becomes effective.

Discussion as to whether the new amendment becomes a part of the constitution, now that 36 states have ratified it, or whether it becomes a part of the basic law only when each state has certified its action to the Secretary of State, led yesterday to a search for precedent, which showed that the only two amendments ratified in the last half century, providing for income taxes and direct election of Senators, were considered effective immediately the thirty-sixth state had taken affirmative action.

Senator Morris Shoppard, author of the prohibition amendment, held that nations prohibition becomes a permanent fact January 16, 1920.

Only 14 of the states have certified their action to the State Department. The vote of the Mississippi Legislature, the first to act, has not been received.

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR'S WORK SEEMS NEAR END

County Food Administrator Cochran Receives Instructions to Ship in All of His Supplies to Louisville State Headquarters.

It appears that the work of the County Food Administrator is about at an end for Mason County Food Administrator, Mr. W. D. Cochran, has just received instructions from State Administrator Sackett to gather up and send into state headquarters all of his supplies and blanks. This appears that the work of the County Administrator is about to end.

It is more than likely that with the recent statement of State Administrator that the maximum margin of profit order was still in force that regulation of prices on some food stuffs will continue for a time yet but practically all of the work of the administration is finished.

Mason county and Maysville merchants are to be congratulated on the manner in which they conducted the business under these Federal restrictions and the people in general conformed to the orders of the administration at all times. There were probably fewer grocers and consumers fined for breaking the administration's orders in Mason county than in any other section of the state and yet the orders were as strictly enforced here as they were at any place.

ASSASSINATION OF LIEBKNECHT IS REPORTED FROM BERLIN

Leader of the Spartan Group and His Woman Are Killed Report Says.

London, January 17—Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, leaders of the Berlin Spartans or Bolsheviks, have been killed, and official Berlin dispatch announced today.

The dispatch added that the persons who committed the murders will be punished severely. Several arrests have been made.

The Frankfurter Zeitung also officially confirms the deaths, according to a despatch from Basle.

The former was shot by his escort, while trying to escape, as he was being taken from his home to military headquarters.

The woman was beaten into insensibility by a mob and then drowned in the Landwehr Canal.

An earlier Berlin despatch, by way of Amsterdam, said Liebknecht stabbed a guard and made a break for liberty while being taken to jail.

The automobile in which the Spartan leader was en route to jail broke down. The escort proceeded on foot.

Liebknecht stabbed one of the guards with a knife he had concealed and ran. Soldiers in the escort fired at him.

This despatch did not state whether Liebknecht had been killed.

A Zurich despatch says the Spartan revolution has been revived on a large scale in Berlin and several of the provinces, following the death of Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg.

The government is expected to take violent measures in an effort to suppress the new disorders.

Five new divisions of government troops have arrived in Berlin and the city gives the impression of being occupied almost entirely by soldiers.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

CHANGING PRINTER'S INK INTO GOLD

Bolivar Bond moved a few years ago from a Woodford county cross-roads to the county capital, the town of Versailles, the substantial county seat of a small but rich county, but not a commercial center. He changed his business from keeping a country store to a real estate office, not in a boom town with an active real estate market, but in an old and very conservative town where speculation in real estate was thought of only as something very remote, as something that might be possible somewhere, but not in Woodford. Not a very promising outlook, one must admit, for a country merchant, turning to the real estate business to educate his children, the country store having shown itself inadequate to meet this obligation.

Bolivar Bond plugged away for several years, working hard and making a living mainly as an auctioneer at Central Kentucky county seats on county court days. Thus had he built a foundation when he made the acquaintance of printer's ink. A newspaper circulation solicitor who met Bond regularly at the county court day assemblies later developed into an advertising salesman and induced the auctioneer to make an advertising contract. Bond was quick to recognize the value of publicity. He got results from the start and as his business grew through advertising he bought more space, becoming in 1918 by far the largest purchaser of advertising space in Central Kentucky, and building up a business that totaled more than $3,600,000.

Mr. Bond has not confined to the public the amount of his own profit, but it is safe to say that the cross-roads country merchant of a few years ago is earning the equivalent of the salary of the higher priced executive of the larger corporations. There is perhaps no corporation executive in Kentucky with a salary equal to Bond's earnings for 1918.

Mr. Bond has character, capacity, and enthusiasm, a combination that is irresistible when reinforced by a liberal use of Lexington Herald advertising space.—Lexington Herald.

THINGS THAT DON'T BELONG TO US

Ezra Jackson, justice of peace in Plumville, was returning home from Chicago on the accommodation train, minding his own business and looking out at the scenery when the conductor came along and said:

"You'll have to take that grip off that seat."

"I guess I won't," said Ezra.

"I guess you will," returned the conductor. "It's against the company's rules to have baggage on the seats."

He went away. Ezra looked at more scenery. The conductor came back.

"I told you to take that grip off that seat," he said.

Ezra ignored him.

"I'm not going to argue with you," the conductor went on. "If you don't take that grip off that seat by the time I come back again, I'll throw it out the window."

He went away. Ten minutes later he came back. The grip was still on the seat. He threw it out the window. The train was going forty miles an hour.

"There," the conductor exclaimed triumphantly, "I told you if you didn't take that grip off that seat I'd throw it out the window."

"I don't care," drawled Ezra. "It ain't mine."

TWO GREAT HIGHWAYS ARE MERGED FOR TEN MILES

The Jefferson Highway is one of the two great trans-continental highways that are in most common use today. The Jefferson Highway begins at New Orleans and ends at Winnipeg. The Lincoln Highway starts at New York and ends at San Francisco. The two great arteries of highway travel cross in central Iowa. In fact, they are merged for a distance of about ten or twelve miles. The travel on these highways is already so heavy that it is difficult to keep them in condition, and it does not stretch the imagination to believe that it is only a question of a very few years until permanent paving will take the place of the present graded and graveled roads. The rural motor express lines, which are bound to be a development of the near future, will force permanent highway construction on arterial roads of this sort. In fact, this permanent construction is already under way on certain parts of the Lincoln Highway. Let us add that the best portions of the Jefferson Highway were found in Southern Minnesota, especially in Steele county, where the roads are patrolled and where maintenance work is apparently given the most careful attention.

EFFICIENCY OF COMMUNITY IS WHAT IS NEEDED NOW

Every Community Needs Community Efficiency Which Is the Net Result of Individual Efficiency.

The net result of individual efficiency or inefficiency is community efficiency or inefficiency, as the case may be. It is idle to say that a community can be efficient if the individuals of which it is composed are inefficient. The community is a natural and logical development of the social instincts of mankind, and if unimpeded that development likely would continue to a point where it met all the requirements of the individual composing the community.

But the community is a complicated institution and the interests of the individuals composing it often appear to conflict not only with one another but with the interests of the community as a whole. To illustrate: there are unquestionably lines of business that might be carried on profitably in any community—that is, profitably for the persons engaged in them—and yet they may be extremely injurious to the community in that they are opposed to the public welfare. Many communities tolerate the existence of institutions and influences of this character, either because nobody realizes their harmfulness or because nobody is willing to incur the displeasure of even a small minority of his fellows by seeking to eliminate such influences.

On the other hand, it frequently happens that a community lacks facilities and equipment indispensable to its proper development, and yet no steps are taken to provide such facilities. The same citizen who on his farm or in his workshop would discard an implement or tool that is less efficient than one he can readily secure will not attempt to rid his community of an influence that is harmful to it nor will he exert his influence to bring into the community or establish within it an institution that is beneficial to it. This is more often due to lack of community viewpoint than to lack of public spirit. The habit of viewing everything from the selfish standpoint unfits one for assuming the community viewpoint, and for that reason it should be a part of the education of every citizen to acquire the habit of considering all his activities in their relation to his fellows.

welfare.

Nobody had supposed before the "late war" began that England, France and America had so much in common that they could afford to place all their armies under a single command; but the conflict has taught the world many things that only a few of the wisest of its leaders ever even dreamed of. It is just so in community affairs—not only the salvation of the race, but the salvation of the world is determined by the fitness of the community to perform its functions, the chief of which is to make good, clean, capable, conscientious and efficient citizens.

$500,000 WORTH OF LEATHER AND GUNS HIDDEN IN GERMANY

Coblenz, January 17.—Hidden German war material continues to be revealed as American troops search the vast warehouse area in Coblenz and vicinity. Officers have found more than 150 guns of 77-caliber and leather or come into the possession of the Americans as abandoned material under the terms of the armistice. All the cannon are virtually as good as new, having apparently been repaired in the last few months of the war.

FROM COAST TO COAST

A Remarkable Chain of Home Testimony. And Maysville Adds Its Voice to the Grand Chorus of Local Praise.

From north to south, from east to west; in every city, every community; in every state in the Union. Rings out the grateful praise for Doan's Kidney Pills. 50,000 representative people in every walk of life. Publicly testify to quick relief and lasting results. And it's all for the benefit of fellow sufferers.

In this grand chorus of local praise Maysville is well represented. Well-known Maysville people tell of personal experiences.

Who can ask for better proof of merit? Ben P. Fleming, constable of Mason County, 217 East Lee Street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times, my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, conking ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Mr. Fleming is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Fleming had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. SAVINGS STILL NEEDED

Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass, in the first detailed statement issued by him since he succeeded W. G. McAdoo, outlined plans for Government financing in the near future. He warned against relaxation and self-satisfaction, pointing out that the war job is not yet completed and that the American people must continue to save and lend their savings to the Government.

The statement, in part, is as follows: "In the eighteen months of the war American people subscribed for $18,000,000,000 of Liberty Bonds and War Savings Certificates."

"Secretary McAdoo has estimated that the cash outgo from the treasury during the current fiscal year, ending June 30, 1919, will amount to $18,000,000,000, and much more than half of that amount has already been expended in the five and one-half months which have elapsed."

"The treasury must issue another large loan before the end of the fiscal year, and I am entirely in accord with the policy already outlined that this loan should take the form of bonds of short maturities."

John W. Porter

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Office Phone 37. Home Phone 96
17 East Second Street, Maysville, Ky.

"It is vitally important that the treasury should continue in a most energetic way the sale of War Savings Stamps and Certificates."

"Millions of our people have become holders of bonds of their Government, but some of them seem to feel that they are under no further obligation to retain these bonds and they are selling them and using the money for unnecessary purposes of exchanging them for other securities of doubtful value. So long as the United States needs to sell bonds those who hold the present issues should not dispose of them except under the spur of urgent necessity. They have invested in the best security in the world, and it is both to their own interest and to that of their Government that these securities be retained."

"There is no doubt that there is throughout the country a feeling of relaxation—a feeling of self-satisfaction that the work already is performed and a strong and not unreasonable call to take up once more individual and business interests and activity. The organizations which have given their time to the sale of bonds were prepared for the task which would have confronted them if the war had continued throughout the year of 1919 or longer, and I am confident that despite these handicaps they will not now relax their efforts and leave the task unfinished. Victory has come to us earlier than we might reasonably have expected, but victory will not cause us to neglect the completion of that work which made victory possible."

ADAMS COUNTY REPRESENTED AFTER 108 YEARS

Lieutenant Governor Brown First Adams Countyman to Hold State Office in 108 Years.

Columbus, Ohio, January 17—It has been 108 years since Adams county was represented in the state government by an elective state official. Governor Thomas Kirker, 1808 to 1810, was the last state official elected from Adams county.

The long silence of Adams county was broken last Monday, however, when Clarence J. Brown was inaugurated as lieutenant governor and assumed his duties as presiding officer of the state Senate.

In commemoration of the event, Adams county citizens presented to Lieutenant Governor Brown a gravel made from a massive oak log taken from the oldest house still standing within the state. The house, which according to historians, is well over the century mark in years, stands on the highest point in Adams county near Manchester and overlooks the Ohio River.

The gravel was presented by Representative F. F. McCoy immediately after Mr. Brown took the oath of office as lieutenant governor.

The new lieutenant governor hears the distinction of being the youngest man ever elected to that office in Ohio. He is 28 years of age.

400 NEW FLU CASES IN FLEMING COUNTY

Flemingsburg, Ky., January 16—In Fleming county the influenza situation continues serious with more deaths during the past week than in any other week yet to date.

Health Officer Brice reports 400 new cases of influenza and 23 of pneumonia. Six deaths were reported for the week, but some were not included. Total deaths to date in the country are probably 55 to 60. Those now ill are Mrs. Virgil Ewan, who has pneumonia following the influenza; Mrs. R. W. Havens, Mrs. Basil Paris, John Comer, two children of Joseph Story and Miss Ethel Jones.

INTEREST IN BOYS' GYMNASIUM GROWS

Interest in the proposition to establish a boys' gymnasium in Maysville continues to grow. A large number of local men are now interested in the proposition and it is certain to meet with success.

PROMINENT TOBACCO MEN ON MAYSVILLE MARKET

Mr. William Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, N. C., one of the chief officers of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and Mr. Theo. Kirk, general buyer for this same company were on the Maysville market today.

Ex-Mayor J. Wesley Lee is assisting at Melvin Knox & Diener's big furniture store during their big sale.

RECORDS BROKEN ON LOOSE LEAF MARKET AS TO PRICE

Mayslick Crop Averaged $71.05 While the High Basket in the Crop Brought $91 Per Hundred—Big Buyers' Part Life in Market.

Messrs. Theo. Kirk and William Reynolds, of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, were on the Maysville market Friday and while the market has been full of life ever since it opened on the first day of the year, these gentlemen put new life into it and prices went even higher than they had ever yet gone this season.

All records were broken when Mr. Theo. Kirk at the Peoples' warehouse started the first basket in the crop of John Allen, colored, and it was not long before it ran up to the very high price of $91 and Mr. Kirk picked it off. Two more baskets in this crop brought $90 a hundred each and the entire crop of 1935 pounds made a general average of $71.05. This crop was grown on the farm of Mr. P. H. Thomas in the Mayslick neighborhood and it broke all records for high prices previously established.

Henry Williams and John Anderson sold a crop which they grew on the farm of Mrs. Darnall near Mayslick at a general average of $66 and many others sold in the high figures during the day.

The market closed for the week in much excitement. A large amount of tobacco was on the floors and prices were higher than old timers had ever seen them before. There is reason to believe that the market will open Monday just as strong as it closed Friday evening.

GEORGE W. CROWELL DEAD

Mr. Crowell for many years was an extensive purchaser of ties and tan bark and is one of the best known men in the county. He was 69 years of age and is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. William Traxel and Mrs. William Slitz. Funeral arrangements are not yet made.

THE PEOPLES AGAIN BREAKS THE RECORD

With a sale of 176,645 pounds the Peoples Friday broke all previous records. Thomas & Allen of Mayslick, broke the record price with a crop average of $71.03. One basket in this crop topped state record at $91 per hundred.

LA FOLLETTE EXONERATED BY SENATE RESOLUTION

Long Fight Against The Wisconsin Senator Ends When Resolution Is Adopted.

Washington, January 17—By a vote of 50 to 21 the Senate yesterday adopted a resolution recommended by a majority of the Privileges and Elections Committee dismissing disloyalty charges brought against Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin, by the Minnesota Public Safety Commission because of his speech on the war delivered before the Nonpartisan League at St. Paul, Mich., September 20, 1917. The resolution said the speech did not justify any action by the Senate.

On the vote, which was preceded by severe arraignment of Senator La Follette by Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, 33 Republican Senators and 17 Democrats supported the resolution, while 20 Democrats and one Republican, Senator Smith, of Michigan, voted against it.

Among those voting in the affirmative were Senator Thomas D. Martin, the Democratic leader; Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, the Republican leader, and the two Minnesota Senators, Frank B. Kellogg and Knute Nelson. Those opposing the resolution included Chairman Atlee Pomerene, of Privileges and Elections Committee, and Senator W. D. Saulsbury, of Delaware, President pro tem, of the Senate.
